

- 1p 10 What is the goal of paragraph 3?
- A to criticise the careless dining habits of the average consumer
 - B to list other aspects of eating out that have been researched
 - C to point out that the energy intake might be higher than recorded
 - D to question the results found by the team that examined meals
- 1p 11 Kies bij 11 in alinea 4 het juiste antwoord uit de gegeven mogelijkheden.
- A act more responsibly
 - B adjust their prices
 - C become less greedy
 - D study the regulations
- 2p 12 “Proposals to shrink the size of dishes or cap calories” (alinea 5)
Geef aan of Kate Nicholls onderstaande argumenten noemt als bezwaar tegen deze voorstellen.
Omcirkel ‘wel’ of ‘niet’ achter elk nummer in de uitwerkbijlage.
- 1 Ze beperken het keuzeaanbod op de menukaart.
 - 2 Ze gaan ten koste van de klanttevredenheid.
 - 3 Ze maken het moeilijker om goed keukenpersoneel te vinden.
 - 4 Ze zullen de restaurants geld kosten.
- 1p 13 What does the last sentence of paragraph 6 suggest?
- A It is clear that social media have changed our eating habits.
 - B It is difficult to get public support for more nutritious meals.
 - C It is possible that things are already changing for the better.

Tekst 6

- 1p 14 “We can buy toys for children that don’t have any” (paragraph 1)
What is true about this statement?
- A It defines what makes Manaaki Day such a unique festive event.
 - B It is a key aspect of the traditional Maori culture in New Zealand.
 - C It is one of the suggestions Eddie Writes made to Justin Lester.
 - D It shows how Justin Lester hopes to boost his popularity in Wellington.

- 1p 15 Why did Mayor Justin Lester react positively to Eddie Writes' letter, according to the text?
- A He saw it nicely matched the policy set out by Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern.
 - B He thought Eddie's plan would help make Wellington more environmentally aware.
 - C He wanted to make clear he supports the Maori population in Wellington.
 - D He was already looking for effective methods to battle poverty in his city.
- 1p 16 'Ardern was met with thunderous applause' (paragraph 2)
Why did she receive applause?
- A for asking key politicians worldwide to focus more on collaboration and being friendly
 - B for being the first female politician to be asked to address the world during a conference
 - C for giving financial support to special programs to protect vulnerable children worldwide
 - D for setting an example by bringing her family to an important political gathering
- 1p 17 'success is measured not only by the nation's GDP' (alinea 2)
→ In welke alinea verderop in de tekst wordt hier ook wat over gezegd?
Noteer het nummer van deze alinea.
- 1p 18 'its environmental policies also set it apart' (paragraph 3)
Which of the following persons is clearly impressed by Ardern's environmental policies?
- A Jess Berentson-Shaw (paragraph 4)
 - B Marama Davidson (paragraph 5)
 - C Russel Norman (paragraph 6)
- 1p 19 Welke maatregel gaat de Nieuw-Zeelandse regering invoeren om ervoor te zorgen dat de cultuur van de oorspronkelijke bevolking behouden blijft, volgens alinea 5?
Geef antwoord in het Nederlands.