

Tekst 9 Don't cap banking bonuses; scrap them

- 1p 30 Which of the following fits the gap in paragraph 1?
- A a stop to hiring top traders
 - B further deterioration of the banking crisis
 - C more pressure for a rise in fixed pay
 - D unrealistic demands on bank employees
- 1p 31 What is true according to paragraphs 2-4?
- A Hargreaves believes banks should try to hold on to their employees, no matter the costs.
 - B Talented traders may not easily succeed in finding a new job due to a lack of job openings.
 - C The current system of financial compensation enables banks to offer competitive interests rates.
 - D The financial sector had to be reined in because of the negative public opinion on bonuses.
 - E Top bankers are breaking laws in an attempt to hold on to their most important employees.
- 1p 32 What does the example of The Royal Bank of Scotland make clear? (paragraph 5)
- A Bankers may have their reasons for ignoring EU regulations.
 - B Some banks prefer issuing bonuses over increasing salaries.
 - C There is a difference between bonuses and annual rewards.
 - D There is no causal relationship between profit and bonuses.
- 2p 33 Bepaal voor elke van de onderstaande beweringen of deze wel of niet overeenkomt met de inhoud van alinea 7-9.
- 1 It is in the interest of John Lewis employees to work hard as they benefit directly.
 - 2 Differentiation in salaries proves to be a productive management tool.
 - 3 The EU curb may contribute to a change in the pay system of the banking industry.
 - 4 A new generation of bankers might implement base pay programs to maximise profit.
- Noteer "wel" of "niet" achter elk nummer op het antwoordblad.